

~Map symbols~

- Border
- Municipal boundaries
- Expressway
- National highway
- Local Road
- J.R. Line
- Private railway/sandrop way
- Tourist Facilities
- Interchange Junction
- Service area
- Parking area
- J.R. Station
- Road side station
- Hot spring
- Temple
- Shrine
- Shikiseeing Spots
- Camouflage
- Cherry Blossom
- Autumn Leaves

4km

Chosa Kaikan

Every year in October, brightly decorated festival floats parade through town for the Chosa Festival. At Toyohara's Chosa Kaikan museum, you can see an actual float on display, along with floats on video and find the origin of the festival, legends of when it was.

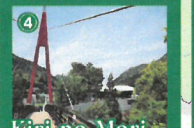

Ibuki Island

Ibuki Island is known for its plentiful high quality "Ibuki" paper, which is produced here. The island is the source for the Setouchi Triennale, where visitors can enjoy folk culture and "Take a rest" viewing the artwork of international design and sculpture. Island residents using bamboo elements used in the production of "Ibuki" (dried anchovy) and more.

Kaminomachi Museum

Shikokuchuo City boasts the top paper production in the nation. Enjoy exhibitions and sales of paper, displays of muchiki (paper-eel craft) and special temporary exhibits themed around paper. You can also try paper-making using traditional Japanese methods (reservation required). 2600-1 Kaminomachi, Shikokuchuo City

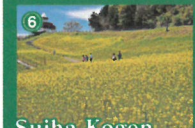

Kiri no Mori "Misty Forest"

There is a cafe where you can enjoy tea along with scenic views of the "Misty Forest" in the area. Advancements of members such as Tokuo Kuroki and Senjuro Ando are presented here, along with exhibitions of rock and minerals from the Maizumi mountains. 1191-1 Uenohara, Shikokuchuo City

Gyou-u Hall

In 1795, the post Katsuyoshi (now called Gyou-u Hall). The current facility was built for the site. Advancements of members such as Tokuo Kuroki and Senjuro Ando are presented here, along with exhibitions of rock and minerals from the Maizumi mountains. 1191-1 Uenohara, Shikokuchuo City

Suiha Kogen Highland

Located at the heart of the Suiha Mountains, this highland is covered in yellow large flowers in spring. Their early blooming comes from flowers from summer in early fall. From April to May, this spot is popular for cherry blossom viewing with its Suiha Valley, Yamakura and Yamakura. 100-1 Hirayama, Shikokuchuo City

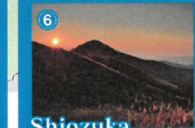

Senryuji

Known as the inner shrine of the Shikoku 88 temple, this is the site of the "Twenty Other Sacred Places in Shikoku". It is said that Koku Haku Daishi, a Buddhist monk, spent 21 days performing the Goma (fire) here in ward of danger and safety, and the place is known as the "Danger Warding Daishi" or "Inner Warding Daishi". 1000 Uenohara, Shikokuchuo City

Kurozo Marshland

There is a lot of water in the marshland, and it is said that the water is very pure. The marshland is covered in water plants and reeds, and it is a good place to observe the water birds. 1000 Uenohara, Shikokuchuo City

Shiozuka Plateau

Also known as the Sea of Shiozuka, this plateau is a very beautiful landscape. There are many beautiful spots to observe the water birds. 1000 Uenohara, Shikokuchuo City

Hi no Ji Valley

The surrounding forest is a very beautiful landscape. There are many beautiful spots to observe the water birds. 1000 Uenohara, Shikokuchuo City

KAN-ONJI CITY

No.68 & No.69: Jinne-in & Kannon-ji Temple

This temple was established more than 1,000 years ago. The Jinne-in (Jinne Temple) is a very old temple. The Kannon-ji (Kannon Temple) is a very old temple. The temple is a very old temple. The temple is a very old temple.

Ichinomiya Park & Beach

Inside the park is a clock tower. The park is a very old park. The park is a very old park. The park is a very old park.

Ariake Beach

Located inside the National Park, the beach is a very old beach. The beach is a very old beach. The beach is a very old beach.

Iya Manneken Pis boy

The Iya Manneken Pis boy is a very old statue. The statue is a very old statue. The statue is a very old statue.

Oboke / Koboke

The Oboke / Koboke is a very old statue. The statue is a very old statue. The statue is a very old statue.